Objective Review

If you're looking to explore a vibrant and flavorful menu in Mexico City, Marlindo is a must-visit. Located at Av. Yucatán 64, Roma Nte., Cuauhtémoc, 06700 Ciudad de México, CDMX, this seafood haven has a variety of mouthwatering options that will leave you craving more. Whether you're in the mood for a light bite or a hearty meal, Marlindo's diverse menu caters to every taste with a perfect blend of fresh ingredients and bold flavors.

Tostadas are a great way to kick off your meal at Marlindo. The Tostada De Marlín is a standout, offering a smoky, tender marlin topping that's paired perfectly with crispy tostada shell. For seafood lovers, the Tostada De Pulpo (octopus) and Tostada De Camarón (shrimp) are both fresh and flavorful, providing a delightful contrast between the tender seafood and crunchy base. If you're in the mood for something more unique, the Tostada De Atún (tuna) brings a fresh, vibrant flavor that's perfect for those who enjoy a bit of raw fish.

The Entradas at Marlindo are equally enticing, offering a variety of appetizers that are sure to set the stage for the main course. The Cóctel De Camarón (shrimp cocktail) is a refreshing option, with sweet shrimp immersed in a tangy, spicy sauce that's a perfect balance of flavors. If you're craving something comforting, the Caldo De Camarón (shrimp soup) is rich, savory, and incredibly satisfying. Another great option is the Gambas Al Ajillo, which features plump, juicy shrimp cooked in garlic and olive oil - a classic that never disappoints. For something more hearty, the Clam Chowder provides a creamy, flavorful start, while the Empanadas Rellenitas (stuffed empanadas) offer a crispy, savory bite filled with delicious fillings.

Marlindo's Especiales will surely captivate anyone's palate. The Burrito De Pescado (fish burrito) is a light yet satisfying choice, with tender fish wrapped in a soft tortilla. For a more adventurous option, try the Burrito Verde, which adds a touch of green salsa to spice things up. The Chilaquiles De La Casa (house chilaquiles) is a popular choice for breakfast or brunch, offering crispy tortilla chips smothered in green or red sauce, topped with eggs, cheese, and a variety of savory toppings. The Aguachile De Camarón is another must-try, a zesty shrimp dish marinated in lime, chilies, and cilantro - perfect for those who like it spicy. If you're in the mood for something simple yet indulgent, the Grilled Cheese Sándwich is a comforting classic with gooey melted cheese between crispy bread, offering a delicious twist on a childhood favorite.

No meal is complete without something sweet, and Marlindo's Postres are the perfect way to end your dining experience. The Pay Helado (ice cream pie) is a refreshing and decadent dessert, combining rich ice cream with a crunchy crust for the ultimate treat. For something a little different, the Rellenita De Nutella is a tempting dessert that features Nutella-filled treats that will satisfy any sweet tooth.

To wash it all down, Marlindo offers a range of Cervezas (beers) that complement their dishes perfectly. Whether you prefer the light and refreshing Corona (355 ml), the crisp Carta Blanca Original (355 ml), or the alcohol-free Corona Cero (355 ml), there's a beer for every taste. The Pacifico Clara (355 ml) and Modelo Especial (355 ml) are also popular choices for those looking for a smooth and flavorful beer to enjoy alongside their meal.

Marlindo offers a welcoming atmosphere, delicious food, and a menu full of fresh, bold flavors. From the crispy tostadas to the indulgent postres, every bite is a celebration of the rich flavors of Mexico. Whether you're a local or a tourist, Marlindo is a place where you can enjoy a variety of dishes that highlight the very best of Mexican seafood and comfort food.
