Objective Review

The menu at Starbucks Reserve in Ciudad de México offers a blend of classic and innovative options perfect for a wide range of tastes. For coffee enthusiasts, the Capuchino provides a rich and velvety experience, while the Carajillo is a delightful mix of coffee and liquor, ideal for those looking for something more indulgent. For a refreshing twist, the Nitro Cold Brew Float and Vanilla Cold Brew Coffee with Almond Milk stand out, offering smooth, cold-infused beverages that are both creamy and aromatic.

If you're craving something to pair with your coffee, the Cafe Americano Con Churros is a perfect choice, combining the boldness of coffee with the sweet crunch of churros. For a more substantial bite, the Sandwich de Pavo Y Queso Panela offers a savory combination of turkey and panela cheese, while the Trenza Con Chorizo provides a flavorful twist on a traditional bread.

For those with a sweet tooth, there are several tempting options, such as the Pan de Elote, a moist corn bread, or the decadent Pay de Manzana Con Helado de Vainilla, a warm apple pie topped with vanilla ice cream. The Dark Moka Helado is another standout dessert, offering a rich chocolatey flavor with an iced twist.

The Bocadillos Salados and Chips de Camote provide delicious savory snacks to balance out the sweet treats, making for the perfect mid-day snack. For something more sophisticated, the Espresso Martini and Boulevardier are excellent choices for those looking for a drink with a touch of class.

Whether you're in the mood for a smooth iced drink or a savory snack, Starbucks Reserve offers a variety of delicious options that cater to every craving.
