Objective Review

Las Palmeras in Red Deer, Alberta, offers a delightful and diverse menu that perfectly blends Mexican flavors with local Canadian influences. As you walk into this vibrant restaurant at 3630 50 Ave, you're immediately drawn to the inviting atmosphere that hints at the bold, flavorful dishes to come. The Las Palmeras menu features a wide variety of options, from savory appetizers to hearty entrees, making it a fantastic place for any dining occasion.

To start your meal off, the appetizers at Las Palmeras set the tone with a few traditional and satisfying choices. Whether you're in the mood for something light like the Caesar Salad, or you're craving the creamy goodness of Chips and Guacamole, there's something for everyone. If you're a fan of zesty flavors, you can't go wrong with the Chips and Salsa, a fresh, tangy dish that's perfect for sharing. For a warm and comforting start, try the Soup of the Day, which changes regularly, offering a seasonal taste of the kitchen's creativity.

When it comes to the main courses, the Entrées at Las Palmeras are where the restaurant really shines. If you love a good grilled chicken dish, the Acapulco Chicken is a must-try, featuring perfectly seasoned chicken paired with a rich, flavorful sauce that evokes the sun-drenched coasts of Mexico. For those who enjoy a little more variety, the Chicken and Ribs combo brings the best of both worlds-succulent chicken paired with juicy ribs in a mouthwatering glaze. And if you're in the mood for something truly indulgent, try the Jambalaya. This Louisiana-inspired dish is packed with spices, tender chicken, and smoky sausage, creating a satisfying combination that's as comforting as it is flavorful. For a slightly different twist, the Chorizo Jambalaya adds a rich, spicy kick, while the Chicken Jambalaya offers a milder yet equally delicious option.

The drink menu at Las Palmeras is just as impressive as the food, with a variety of local brewers and creative cocktails to complement your meal. Local favorites such as Belly Hop Brewery, Field and Forge Brewery, and Hawk Tail Brewery offer refreshing craft beers that pair perfectly with any dish on the menu. If you're more of a cocktail person, you'll be pleased with the variety on offer. From the classic Batanga, a tequila-based cocktail with a tangy kick, to the refreshing Mojitos-both the classic and the exotic Hibiscus Mojito-there's no shortage of refreshing choices to quench your thirst.

If you're in the mood for a refreshing beer, the Cerveza selection features well-known options like Corona, Pacifico, and Dos E Lager, which are perfect for cooling off with friends. There's also the Corona Sun Brew 0, a zero-alcohol option for those who want to enjoy the taste without the buzz.

For those who enjoy exploring new flavors and trying something a bit outside the ordinary, the Cobra and Cuba Libre are fantastic options to consider-both cocktails are a perfect blend of rum and mixers, offering a bold and refreshing twist.

Las Palmeras is truly a place where you can enjoy a range of flavors, whether you're after a light appetizer, a filling main course, or a refreshing drink. The menu perfectly caters to a variety of tastes and preferences, ensuring that every visit is a new and exciting culinary adventure. Whether you're stopping by for a casual lunch, a dinner date, or just a drink with friends, Las Palmeras has something to offer that will leave you coming back for more.
